Sera Hyjek

"Stay close to anything that makes you glad you are alive"

Sera started her KW journey just last year with the 72 Sold team. Closing 17 units in her first year. Sera is a born and raised Vermonter, growing up in Middlesex. She went to Smith College in North Hampton, MA and later became an elementary school teacher. Aside from teaching and real estate, she is also a Team Leader for Usborne Books & More and enjoys creating craft cocktails, cooking, and travel. She is happily married and shares her son Luca with her wife, Marcie Lewis. She is also the coolest step mom ever to her step sons, Jackson (11) and Josh (14).

What aspect of your role do you enjoy most?

I love connecting with folks and getting to know them as they make huge life decisions and part with their largest asset - their home! I enjoy coaching sellers through this process and supporting them through their stress, worries and fears.

What advice would you give to a new agent?

Say yes to learning opportunities. Listen to your clients - they need you more than they'll let on! Find good colleagues and don't let them go!

If you could do another job just for one day, what would it be?

Honestly, I love the job I have! If I had to choose something else to do for a day, I'd play viola in a pit orchestra for a theater, or maybe even for a film production!

What's something that you're proud of?

I am proud of my kids! They're the best! Personally.... I'm proud of making a third career change and thriving in a competitive environment!

When are you happiest?

Cooking up big meals the kitchen, or snuggled in bed with my toddler while we read books and eat snacks!
